PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the faith community of Immaculate Conception, exist to worship God through prayer, good works, the sacraments, and to be one in Christ in Celebration of the Holy Eucharist. We are ambassadors of the Catholic tradition in the heart of Georgia. Our call is to nurture our individual spiritual growth and form one another in the values of the Gospel, with a sense of unity and hope, as we build the Kingdom of God.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

You enter this church not as a stranger but as a guest from God. We hope you will find a loving Christian community, and we look forward to benefiting from your uniqueness. Please contact the church office to register.

We have CCD every Sunday after 10:00 a.m. Mass during the school year.

Parents whose children are enrolled in the 1st Communion and Confirmation preparation programs for this Religious Education school year are required to present a copy of their Baptismal Certificate. Contact the baptizing church now to get your copy if you don't already have one. Please check with the Church Office to make sure that you are registered with ICC or one of the Mission Parishes. This is a requirement before you receive any Sacraments.

Baptismal Classes are scheduled for the 4th Tuesday of each month in the Narthex at ICC. You must contact the Church Secretary to begin the registration process for Baptism. Next class date will be announced.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is the process used by the Catholic Church to present the beliefs and practices of the Catholic faith to those adults who are interested in coming into full communion with the Church. RCIA is where you learn about the Catholic Church so that you can make an educated decision if you would like to become Catholic. RCIA is also for those who have been Catholic their entire life can come and get renewed in their faith. Contact: The church secretary at (478) 272-0266.

Students

Please keep in your prayers, our Confirmation students in each of our mission parishes, that Our Lady will impart to them the graces necessary for them to be open and prepared to fully receive the Holy Spirit and the gifts he will impart to them. We pray that those gifts will be well received and produce much fruit that serve them throughout their lives.

This Sunday's Gospel Reflection:

The Gospel is from St. Luke 20:27-38. In this passage Jesus gives his brief answer to the Sadducees, and to us he provides the essential facts concerning our future status. First, he affirms that all those who have proved themselves worthy while in this life will rise to an eternal life. In that life we will become like angels. We will not be angels, pure spirits without bodies, but we will be like them in that our bodies will become "spiritual." They will lose all the restrictions and limitations imposed on them now, as mere material composites. They will no longer be subject to decline and decay as they now are. Therefore, they can never suffer from pain or sickness or weakness of any sort.

Second, He clearly affirmed that those risen from the dead are no longer liable to death. Leaving aside the other greater joys of heaven, such as the beatific vision, and the close association with Christ our Savior in His risen humanity, the meeting with our blessed Mother and with all the Saints, including our relatives and friends, what a source of happiness and joy will it be for us, to know that we can never die again! The happiness and joy which we shall have will never end. We all have had moments of happiness in this life. Great as these moments were, the thought that they had to end too soon cast a shadow on our joy. There will be no shadow to darken or lessen our future joy and happiness.
